Status

- Typography — Implemented on retuned.app (all pages: /, /science, /support)
- Logo (light) — Deployed as /landing-assets/logo.png
- Logo (dark) — Ready for next app build (icon.png, adaptive-icon.png)
- Nav wordmark — Still using old font with gold "TU" underline. Needs update to Outfit 500, 17px, no underline.

Logo — Resonance Rings

Design Concept

Concentric gold rings radiating outward from a glowing core — representing sound frequencies, inner resonance, and the app's positive feedback loop. The subtle white play triangle in the core ties the logo directly to the app's purpose: pressing play on your inner voice.

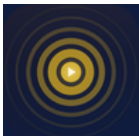

Construction

Element	Specification
Rings	5 concentric circles at 98%, 82%, 66%, 50%, 34% of canvas
Ring opacity	Outer→Inner: 6% → 12% → 28% → 52% → 78%
Ring weights	0.8px → 3.0px (scaled for render size)
Core	15% diameter, radial gradient #E5C95C → #C9A227
Core glow	6px + 14px box-shadow, rgba(201,162,39)
Play triangle	White at 85% opacity, seated fully inside core circle
Dark background	Linear gradient 160°: #1A1A2E → #0F1C3F, 22% corner radius
Light version	Rings on white, no background shape

At Small Sizes

Typography — Hybrid System

The Rule

Big statement headline (h1, h2) → Cormorant Garamond 600 (elegant serif)

Action heading (h3, h4, cards, steps) → Outfit 700 (bold sans-serif)

Everything else (body, buttons, nav) → Outfit 400/500 (regular sans-serif)

Why Hybrid?

Cormorant Garamond looks elegant at large sizes (hero headlines, section titles) but becomes thin and wispy at smaller sizes. Outfit Bold provides the weight and punch needed for action-oriented headings like timeline steps, feature card titles, and flywheel labels. The contrast between serif and sans creates visual hierarchy that guides the eye.
